

There was a silly person in Devon

There was a silly person in Devon, who considered temporary lockdown rules a Burden.
There's no crisis he cried,
when outside.
There's too much fuss,
Over this Corona Virus.
But he soon became ill and to hospital he went,
To be put on a vent,
Until he was sent,
To his permanent lockdown in heaven.

Mr G Bryant