

Coronavirus

The Coronavirus is here to stay,
For a while, so they say,
Our lives have changed beyond belief,
To get out in the garden, what a relief.

All activities had to end,
No cups of coffee with a friend,
No popping over to Waitrose,
When this will end, nobody knows.

So much time on our hands,
It's time for us to make plans,
Now's the chance to do some chores,
Tidying up our cupboards and drawers.

Lots of things we could do, Crosswords, jigsaws, wordsearch, to name a few,
Exercises should be done,
These are good for everyone.

Grateful thanks to my buddy,
Who is look after me,
Making sure I have food
For dinner and for tea.

By Shirley Gray