

Life in Lockdown

When all this is over
And we're finally free
I hope I remember
What mattered to me.

When this is all over
And my life is my own
I'll see you in person
Not a face on my phone.

When this is all over
And I go where I please
I'll think of those workers
Who risked all for me.

When this is all over
And I hold you again
Forgive me for crying
Not holding it in.

When this is all over
And I am still here
I'll think of the thousands
Still drying their tears

When all this is over
And I'm finally free
I swear I'll remember
What matters to me.

Family. Friends. Freedom.

Carolyn Nash