

Our staff

Your photos smile for us
outside the Office door.
They just announce your names,
but tell us nothing more.

Beneath each friendly face
we want to write whole books
of kindnesses remembered,
and gentle, wordless looks.

You make us all feel human,
though often stressed by fear.
We know that if we're troubled,
you'll lend a listening ear.

So thanks to all our ladies,
we bask in thoughtful care,
while TRC floats onwards - because you're always there.

(TRC is the acronym we all use for our McCarthy and Stone community)
